

OHIO VALLEY MUZZLE LOADING

GUN CLUB

April 21, 2023

Hello Everyone;

Our last shoot was switched up at the last minute to a Novelty Shoot. Due to high winds, we didn't think it was a good idea to be in the woods. Thanks much to Bill Grubaugh for getting targets ready on such short notice. It was very windy, extremely hard to stand still to shoot. We had about 15 shooters. Thanks, Sis, for bringing some lunch for us all!

This shoot Top Gun Went to Rick Horton.

After the April 1st shoot, Bob Hurlburt was pulling his little trailer home and it got blown off the road, I think it's a total loss, but he did hold on and save doing much damage to his truck, and most importantly he was not hurt.

On old business, from the March 4th shoot, Ron Goudy was TOP GUN!!

Dave Nunes, Rick Harkless, Bob Hurlburt and I manned the Pheasants Forever event. It was not as busy as we've had before, but it was a nice day.

Our next shoot is on May 7th, hosted by Rick Horton, it's a paper match for groceries.

Looking ahead at Founder's Day weekend. I'm leaning towards having a Woodswalk on Saturday. We missed out on April 1st so this would let us make it up. Also, the Table Shoots just don't seem that popular for us and we've had plenty of Novelty shoots already this year. Sunday would still be a paper match with the Top Gun (Club Member) getting the tomahawk!!

So, if that sounds OK, let me know.

Hope to see you at the range!

Mark Hazel
